Saint James Parish Mission Statement

Saint James the Less Parish will conduct our lives in ways that illustrate our discipleship to Jesus Christ by evangelizing His Word, promoting a culture of life, embracing the richness of the Catholic Faith, use the Beatitudes to model our behaviors, and draw closer to Him through the Sacraments where we will receive courage, zeal, confidence, purpose, and the blessings of the Holy Trinity.

WELCOME, VISITORS! We extend a warm welcome to the individuals and families who are celebrating with us today. We invite you to register with our Parish Family. You can fill out a registration form online or at the kiosk located in the Narthex, and return it to the church office.

DIOCESE of SAVANNAH

CALLED BY NAME

ENCOURAGING FUTURE CATHOLIC LEADERS

Today is Called by Name Sunday

Help us identify the most faithful young people in the Diocese of Savannah who love Christ and the Church. Bishop Parkes is asking all parishioners to submit the names of young people high school age or older, who possible could be called to priesthood or religious life, but who simply show devotion to our faith, whatever their vocations may be. The bishop will then send them a letter of encouragements, and the Vocation office will offer gentle assistance as they discern their vocation. Thank you for being the “voice of Christ” and identifying the future leaders of our Church!

Is there someone you've noticed who is a particularly faithful young Catholic? Help us to encourage them by sharing their name and contact information. Please think deeply about the teens and young adults in your parish who you believe could be faithful leaders in the Catholic Church of the Diocese of Savannah. These young people do not necessarily need to desire to become Priests or Sisters; we also need leaders in the vocation of marriage. They need to desire Jesus Christ! They need to desire to bring others to Him.

Please submit the names of a least one (but hopefully several!) faithful young people you know. You can use the card provided at Mass or online at savannahvocations.org. We are trying to collect as many names as possible. Thank you for you generous response.

PASTOR'S CORNER

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ELECTION RESULTS

It will be nice this weekend to enjoy watching football without political ads! The election was declared on Election Day (well the wee hours of the morning of the next day...) and we can all take a deep breath as the dust settles. Every Presidential election seems to be rather stressful and contentious as issues and policies arise and are debated by all.

Each election cycle, hot button issues come to the fore and we focus on them. Most seem to fade away from the consciousness of people when the ballots are counted and a winner is declared. As Catholics, we have a moral duty not only to vote, but to be informed about and formed by Catholic Social Teaching. As a section of moral theology, the Church has a long history of how we as Christians participate in our civic communities and political process. In Rerum Novarum (1891), Pope Leo XIII was the first pontiff to write an encyclical focused on civic/political/social issues and where the Gospel intersects these issues. Since then, there have been many others including Centesimus Annus by Pope St. John Paul II on the 100th Anniversary of Rerum Novarum. We also now have the Catechism of the Catholic Church which guides and forms us. I encourage you to not wait until the next election cycle to see or search for what the Church teaches on this or that issue. Begin now forming your conscience and explore the teachings of the Church about civic, political, and social issues and where the Gospel enters the arena of the public square. We are disciples of Jesus Christ no matter where we go or what we encounter. We cannot shed our Catholic faith for a cloak of another ilk. We should continually each and every day (not just in the election cycle) work to conform our will to the will of the Master, to transform our heart, to the heart of the Master, and to inform our minds to the mind of the Master.

How can I, as your pastor, how can we as your priests, assist you in this endeavor? I am open to suggestions!

HOUSEKEEPING

Last week, I wrote about posture during the Eucharistic Prayer. This weekend, I would like to mention a couple of other things. Since we are worshipping in a gym, the first instinct of a child is to run! I am so glad that we have so many children at mass! That is where they belong on Sunday morning with their families! Please note that there is a hallway on the Early Learning Center side of the gym, and bathrooms out there, too. This can also be used as an Exit after the Final Blessing of Mass. Also, as we enter into our new worship space, please walk past the first section and fill in the other three sections. The section of chairs nearest the entrance from the breezeway we would like to keep for those with mobility issues who have a difficulty walking so far, and for families with small children who may need to step into the breezeway during mass. Thank you for your cooperation!

St. James the Less, pray for us and all our endeavors and plans!
May the Lord Jesus bless you and your families abundantly this week!

A PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Father, your only son took upon himself the sufferings and weakness of all mankind; through His passion and cross He taught us how good can be brought out of suffering. Look upon our brothers and sisters who are ill. In the midst of illness and pain, may they be united with Christ, who heals both body and soul; may they know the consolation promised to those who suffer and be fully restored to health.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the sick of our Parish Community:

Fr. Daniel Firmin, Josie Lee, Paul Baldwin, Julia Strickland, Leigh Nelson, Vicky Reyes, Dick Buchner, Maria Polito, Thomas Turchiano, Brian DeRouen, Noelle Franklin, Carlos Vindel, Sean McGahey, Monica & Pamela De Guzman, and all those listed in the book of the sick.

In order for a name to be included on the prayer list, an immediate family member must notify the church office at 912-355-1523. Names will be listed here for 4 weeks and then entered into the Book of the Sick, unless the office is notified otherwise.

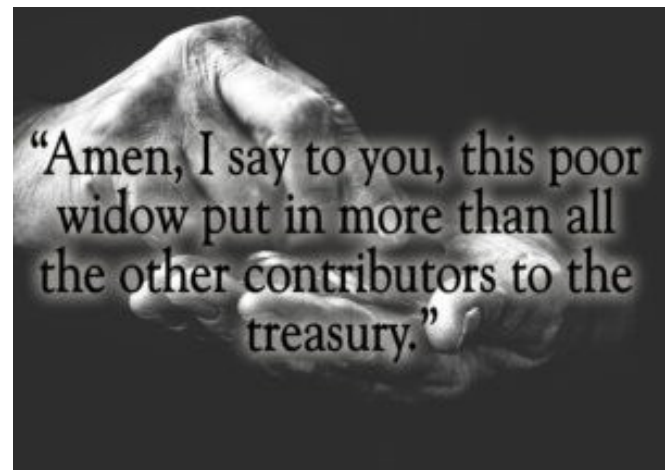

A PRAYER FOR THE DEAD

Father, source of forgiveness and salvation, through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and all the saints, grant that our relatives, friends, and benefactors, who have passed from this world, may come to share your eternal happiness in the communion of saints.

~ Through Christ our Lord. ~ Amen.

We pray for the repose of the souls of:

Jack Kouvel, Joe Morgan, Jr., Joe Harty, Nick Turchiano, Joyce Egan, Robert Murphy, and all our deceased family and friends.

The Nursery is available for children 4 and under during the 9 AM & 11:30 AM Sunday Masses. The Nursery is located in the Early Learning Center, Classroom #2.

Bright Eye-Deas Low Vision Group

Those among us with low vision limitations will certainly want to join our group on Wednesday, November 13 from 10:00 – 11:30 am at the Skidaway Island Methodist Church on Diamond Causeway. Our program for this meeting will be led by Daniel Chrimer, Reader Advisor for the Georgia Library Service (GLS) for the Blind and Print Disabled (BARD). Mr. Chrimer will inform us on the BARD audio book program that is free and how to use it. He will also discuss the services provided by GLS and BARD, as well as the assistive technologies available and the GLS monthly tech talks. If you’ve been missing being able to read books and periodicals, this will be an excellent opportunity to avail yourself of this free service. If you have devices that you are currently using, bring them along and we will assist one another in getting set up on this program. We look forward to seeing you. Remember that spouses and your helpful persons are also welcome to attend. If you have questions or need a ride to the meeting, please contact Kay Higby at 248-227-1800 or kehigby@comcast.net. If you would like to join us for lunch following the meeting, please contact Anne Jeanblanc at 912-598-0879.
